

2022 Financial Assistance Request for Outdoor Adventure Day Camp Program Fee

The Dahlem Conservancy provides financial assistance through the generous contributions received from friends, family, volunteers, foundations and businesses to underwrite camp fees to help campers participate in day camp opportunities. Financial assistance is granted on need and availability of funds. Completing this form does not guarantee approval.

To apply, use this form. Please submit a separate application for each child. Fill out this form neatly and completely, listing and attaching all information requested along with completed child's camp registration forms. All applicants are required to pay a $35 deposit (non-refundable). Camperships are restricted to one Financial Assistance Request per camper, per summer. Families are encouraged to contribute back to the financial assistance fund whenever possible. All information is confidential.
